About the Conference

The Fourth International Conference on Agricultural and Food Engineering (CAFEi2018) will be hosted by the Department of Process and Food Engineering and the Department of Biological and Agricultural Engineering, Universiti Putra Malaysia. This conference will be held at The Everly Putrajaya, Wilayah Persekutuan, Malaysia on 7th - 9th November 2018.

The main objective of CAFEi2018 is to provide a forum to present and discuss innovation in agricultural and food engineering to meet the needs of humankind sustainably, in line with the theme of the conference "Adapting to Challenges". We believe that this conference can become a platform in finding new and more sustainable ways of addressing global food security issue to meet the need of growing population and challenging lifestyle.

We welcome scientists, engineers, researchers, government authorities academicians, economist, architects, journalist and entrepreneurs from all over the world to present their ideas, innovation or local solutions to gain more understanding about problem of feeding the world in the future. This conference will be a venue for critical discussion, potential solutions and promotions of recent innovation in agricultural and food engineering to feed the world in 2050.

"Adapting to Challenges"

Call for Papers

World population is expected to exceed 9 billion by 2050. Agricultural industry must produce enough food and fibre to feed a growing population. Sustaining agriculture nowadays become more challenging to adapt to the world's climate change. In line with the theme of the conference "Adapting to Challenges" we encourage papers related to Agriculture for Food Security with the idea to discuss the different possibilities for improving the efficiency of agricultural practices for high quality food production. Conference topics include but are not limited to:

Agricultural Mechanization and Automation
Agricultural Processing
Aquacultural Engineering
Bioinformation System
Farm Structure
Farm Management Information System
Precision Horticulture
Plant and Animal Environment
Postharvest Engineering
Safety and Health in Agriculture
Soil and Water Engineering
Drying Technology

Food Processing
Food and Agricultural Waste Management
Food Security and Safety
Packaging Engineering
Precision Farming and AgriGIS
Process Control and Integration
Process Modelling and Simulation
Any other related topics

All accepted abstracts with full papers will be published in a scientifically reviewed e-Conference's Proceeding with International Standard Book Number (ISBN). Selected papers will be recommended for publication in open access Food Research Journal.

The Editorial Board will closely monitor all manuscripts in order to keep up a high scientific and technical standard throughout. Special emphasis is to be made on the correct use of the English language. Each paper will be reviewed by two competent reviewers.

Authors will be informed about these instructions in the final circular and call for papers.

Authors can now start submitting the abstracts through the Online Submission Link available at www.cafei.upm.edu.my or <https://submit.confbay.com/conf/cafei2018>
